SHIP LIQUOR RULES CHANGED ONCE MORE

Latest Decision Provides for Alcohol Allowance to Comply With Laws of Home Port

Washington, July 6. — Liquor allowance to foreign ships in American waters under a decision today by the treasury will be based on the literally, will be based hereafter on the requirements of laws of the country in whose trade the vessels are operating, regardless of the nationality of the owners.

By this addition to the ship liquor regulations, a British owned ship engaged exclusively in Italian trade will receive allowances of intoxicants sufficient to comply with the laws of Italy. If a vessel's passenger list and cargo come from several countries each of which has laws requiring the carrying of liquor, the same allowance will be granted and specific provisions of those several laws will be met in addition.

Ship Owners Protest.
The decision resulted from representation made by the owners of the Cunard liner Tuscania and the White Star liner Arabic, through the British embassy. Each ship came in conflict with the laws of Italy requiring wine stores for steerage passengers and their owners appealed to this government for relief.

Public health service doctors, in passing on the liquor applications of the two vessels apparently had determined to allow only the quantities prescribed for medicinal uses by British law, inasmuch as both were flying the British flag. The Italians among the steerage passengers demanded the wines which the laws of their homeland said they should have, and the decision of the treasury makes it possible for them to have it in the future.

MERRICK AND AIDS FOIL

RUM RUNNING ATTEMPT

New York, July 8.—An encounter with 12 rum runners, and the subsequent foiling of attempts to land liquor from two ships off Atlantic highlands and other points along the New Jersey coast early today, were recounted by R. Q. Merrick, divisional prohibition field chief for New York and New Jersey.

Merrick said that he and three assistants were hidden in tall grass at Atlantic highlands when the party of rum runners, carrying flashlights, came upon them.

Upon learning the identity of the agents the rum runners signalled the ships to move to another point. The runners departed in automobiles. Mer-

LITTLE LESSONS IN Big Sports

GOLF

Should the driver be gripped firmly in the palm of the hand or more lightly by the fingers?

Answered by TOM KERRIGAN

Professional, Sweeney Country club, Mount Vernon, N. Y. A consistent place winner in big tournaments. In British Open, 1921, he finished third, two points behind Hutchinson and Wethered, tied for first.

It is the left hand that controls the club in driving. In order that the left hand may function properly it is necessary that the grip should be taken almost entirely in the fingers and very little in the palm of the hand. This will allow the left hand to be well over the shaft. The right should also be mostly a finger grip. While this grip may feel awkward at first, it will soon become easy and natural. The feeling of power which is given by a palm grip is deceptive. Such a grip makes the muscles rigid, while the greatest speed of the club head can never be obtained unless the muscles are supple and properly relaxed.

STAMFORD NOSED OUT

Walton Narrowly Escaped Defeat at Hands of Mountaineers Yesterday at Stamford—Walton Wins, 6-1.

Stamford, July 6. — A ninth inning rally brought Stamford within one score of defeating Walton on the local diamond this afternoon. Even with two men down in the ninth things looked rosy for the Mountaineers, for the locals were crowded, but Brickley, Walton's pinch pitcher, put a world of stuff on his slants to Eastburn and the Stamford left fielder went out, short stop to first, and Walton packed an 8 to 7 victory in its bat bag. The last stanza was a nightmare for Walton, Stamford making four runs and chasing Wittington off the mound.

Price, Stamford's new twirler, caught cold in his pitching arm on Thursday night and was not up to form, Walton making eight hits off his delivery in less than two innings. Tracy relieved him and held the opposing sluggers in leash during the remainder of the contest.

Stamford's athletes did some clever base running, working double steals in the sixth and eighth innings. Driscoll stole home in the sixth. In the ninth Wittington made a balk with the bases crowded with Stamford players and was hit by a runner. One of the game, the Walton catcher making three hits, including a home run and a double, in five times up.

ONEONTA WINS SERIES

Glenn Chaplin First of Two Night Games Ending of Game From Tannersville by Five Games to Three—Archie Hughes Home Run Afternoon.

The Oneonta Giants took the first of two series from Tannersville at Neahwa park yesterday afternoon by winning the eighth game of the first portion, 5 to 3. The series stands at five to three games. Another series, also of eight contests, will be commenced when the two teams clash in the next controversy Wednesday.

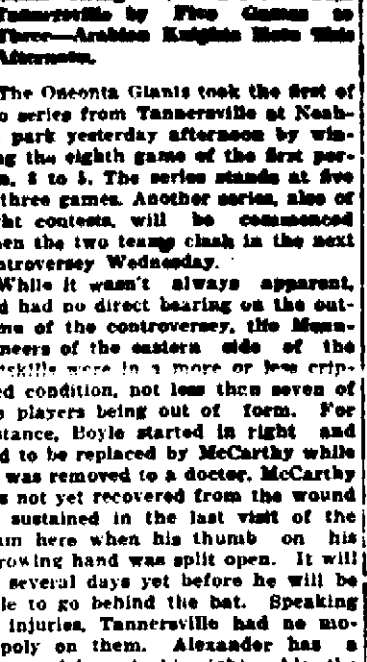

While it wasn't always apparent, and had no direct bearing on the outcome of the controversy, the Mountaineers of the eastern side of the Catskills were in a more or less crippled condition, not less than seven of the players being out of form. For instance, Boyle started in right and had to be replaced by McCarthy while he was removed to a doctor. McCarthy has not yet recovered from the wound he sustained in the last visit of the team here when his thumb on his throwing hand was split open. It will be several days yet before he will be able to go behind the bat. Speaking of injuries, Tannersville had no monopoly on them. Alexander has a shattered bone in his right ankle, the result of the spiking in the Stamford game Thursday. Sinatack is still out of the game on account of a bum digit.

Only Two Hits in Five Innings.

Davis pitched within one-third of an inning of six rounds without a pass allowing but two hits. He worked less effectively after that point and granted free transportation three times and permitted seven safeties to be made off his deliveries in the final three and a third periods. Suhre, his opponent, was touched for a dozen blows that went safe and donated five trips to four. He fanned four, while Davis got two by that means. Simon appeared a liner by leaping into the air in the fourth frame and went back into center field in the second to get a fly ball. Brown made a fine catch of a foul fly in the third and in the seventh Watkins made an excellent stop of a grounder that started out with a bit label attached. He got straightened into some kind of throwing position and heaved high to first in his haste but Perry leaped into the ozone and got back in time to get the decision from the umpire.

Oneonta started the joyful work of obtaining victory by gathering in two coins in the second. Brown was out and Scanlon was granted a pass. Boylan hit out a triple between left and center, scoring Scanlon. Davis dropped down a slow one to short, who got the hitter at first while Boylan came in.

Two more counters were rung up by the visitors in the ninth. Suhre started things off with an out. Dugan singled and went to third when Simon threw Strenk's grounder wild to first. Strenk getting second. Raskin hit another sacrifice fly, Dugan scoring and Strenk being held at the middle cushion. Porter singled through third with a hot one, scoring Strenk. White made the final out with a foul fly to Brown.

Winning Run in Fourth.

Ferry opened the third with a double. Watkins laid down a bunt along the first base line, which Raskin fumbled before he fielded it to first, two late to get an out. Ferry obtained a third. Eckstein put another beat hit in, scoring Perry and leaving men on first and second with no one on the retired list. Simon and Brown were put on the pension sheet and then Scanlon came into the spotlight with a bingle that scored Watkins and Eckstein. Boylan grounded out.

The winning score in the fourth. Wilcox was given four wide ones and got second when the fielder dropped the catcher's throw to stop him. Ferry singled with a hot one through third and took second when the left fielder, in retrieving the pill, permitted it to travel on. Wilcox scored on the play.

Tannersville was compelled to wait until two had been put to sleep in the sixth before they could accumulate enough spare parts to build a run. Raskin and Porter were passed and White got a single, making three on the paths. Price hit a sharp cut through the box, across second and into center, putting Raskin and Porter across the pentagon and leaving first and second occupied. McCarthy was easily disposed of on the ground—or he hit Watkins.

In the eighth the visitors put another tally in their collection. Raskin opened the round with a single to short. Porter put over another bingle. White hit to Simon at second base who touched the bag ahead of the runner from first. Raskin easily making third. Price was walked, again making three on. McCarthy hit

THE FOURTH IN OTSEGO.

"Safe and Sound" the General Verdict — Interesting Program of Day.

Otsego, July 6.—The ever glorious Fourth passed off in a "safe and sound" manner, and leaves nothing but pleasant memories of the events of the day to ponder over. The day was ideal, and the arrangements for a day of pleasure and sports were well carried out, and enjoyed by the large concourse of people assembled to witness the events.

The Odd Fellows, who are ever on the alert with good things to sustain the "inner man," evened things up with a good showing on the credit side of the ledger. William Buchanan, who we understand had charge of the "pounding machine," was the only one to complain about "business." Of course, the ball games were drawing features of the day's sports, but as we have lost our "score card" we are unable to give the results of the games. This we regret, but can reliably state that the Otsego team were winners in both the forenoon and afternoon contests. There are many other interesting features of the celebration that we would like to mention, but space forbids. As is the usual custom, on these festive occasions, the day's festivities ended by a pleasant dance in the opera house, which was well patronized.

NO OPERATION FOR HER

She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Escaped the Operation Doctor Advised

Louisville, Ky. — "I wish to thank you for what your medicine has done for me. I was in bed for eight or nine days every month and had a great deal of pain. I feel fine all the time now, also am picking up in weight. I will tell any one that your medicines are wonderful, and you may publish my letter if you wish." — Mrs. Ed. BORNHART, 1135 Ash St., Louisville, Ky.

AN OPEN BUSINESS STREET.

The resolution of the common council on Tuesday night, directing the police officers of the city to keep Main street free from parked cars on all week days between the hours of 10 a. m. and 6 p. m., and between the Main and Chestnut street, and the Main and Ford avenue intersections, in one which will have general approval of citizens. At an earlier period in city history, the number of cars was limited, and it was no great inconvenience to have them left indefinitely on the principal business thoroughfares. The number of cars, however, is now so great that, with no restrictions as to place or time of parking, Oneonta's chief street has frequently been lined with cars on both sides, making it almost impossible for shoppers in autos to approach the sidewalks in front of stores, or when street cars are passing, to thread their way, save by exercise of the utmost caution, between the trolleys and the double row of motor vehicles.

At one time it was suggested that the paved street could be widened by narrowing the sidewalks, but investigation showed that this was not practicable, and even if it had been the cars would have still blocked the streets and made approach to the curbs impossible. At best Main street is so broad, in the only thing, therefore, used to adopt the plan recommended by the police commission and force, and which on Tuesday was approved by the council.

Though in operation only two days, for it was proper to give at least one day for the public to become accustomed to the situation, the plan seems to be working out well. Cars of residents and visitors are being parked out of the way of what would otherwise be congested traffic, and so far as can be learned, most people are satisfied.

Without delay, it is believed, is made by means of the provision which allows a car to stop alongside the curb on the otherwise prohibited section of the city, so long as some one remains in it, for half an hour; and this will allow a reasonable period for the ordinary errands. Also, the early morning and the time after six in the morning, since in these periods there will ordinarily be no rush of traffic. And at all times of day there are plenty of side streets, near the business center, where cars can be parked.

The matter is one which has for a long time been under consideration and various experiments have been made and tentative plans tried out. Meantime the condition, with the constantly increasing number of cars, has been growing worse. For the protection of the public, therefore, and in order that the police officers may satisfactorily carry on their work, the present plan has been adopted. It is believed that it will work satisfactorily; and in their effort to enforce the new regulations the police officers should have cooperation of every citizen.

HIDDEN SINS

While I kept silence my bones were old through my roaming all the day long.—Ps. 121:3.

A sin concealed is like a hidden fire. It eats into the very life and consumes it with the weariness of old age. It "weighs upon the heart."

It dries up the springs of innocent joy and peace, so that existence becomes like a thirsty, tedious fever.

There is no relief in "roaming." All the complaints and murmuring, the craving of discontent with life and the provoking of a sullen, discontented spirit, are in vain.

Know that "the times are out of joint," grow at the world for a cheat, seek at yourself for a fool—all this will bring no relief, no comfort.

The Oneonta (and that means the rest of us) is too deep for any remedy that you can devise.

There is but one Physician who can heal it.

He will bring it to him, frankly, saying, "I am a sinner, and I know it." He will acknowledge it is good for the soul, and that God's mercy is great, and that he can every day convert sinners to his kingdom.

He will tell you that sin is a deadly disease, and that it can be cured only by the blood of Jesus Christ.

He will tell you that the Oneonta Star is a free gift to all who will accept it, and that it is a great help to many who are in need of it.

PRESS AND PUBLIC OPINION

Young (Continued).

The most appalling item in crime statistics is the number of youths listed under the more violent offenses. And the worst of it is that the number of these is increasing. While a murderer may be a murderer and a robber a robber, there is a distinction between the mature offender and the youthful one. The mature generally act with realization of their crimes, or at least with malicious disregard of their enormity and with full intent. The youth is to be given the benefit of the doubt. As a rule he has the recklessness that goes with usefulness, often has little realization of the meaning of his offense, is easily led to criminal acts by evil influences and is frequently a victim of folly that blinds him to the consequences of crime.

The youthful criminal may be as great an offender against law and as dangerous to society as the mature offender, but until this is proved he has claim to consideration which the hardened offender has forfeited. —(Washington Post).

New Kind of "Hold."

Although our Canadian neighbors read American books and magazines voluminously, they have their turn of speech that are not American and do not appear to be British either. Dominion papers last week told how the senate had given "the six months' hold" to the government's bill appropriating $28,000,000 for new railway lines. The measure in question did not get a "lift." Action was postponed for six months. The bill was, as it were, raised to a high shelf and placed out of sight. That kind of a hold is not a "boost." —(Springfield Republican).

What's a Republican?

The election returns from Minnesota will make no difference whatever with La Follette's Republican standing, even in case the Republican candidate is elected. If La Follette can be a Republican, anyone can be. Why should not everybody join the Republican party? —(Springfield Republican).

Motor Recklessness.

The most inveterate optimist cannot but be discouraged by the appalling exhibit of motor recklessness in despite of public campaigns for traffic safety. A fifty per cent increase of deaths in four years comes near to a demonstration of the impotence of restrictions and penalties to stop the slaughter. —(New York World).

Henry's Star.

Mr. Ford with a barrel as heavy as a man's will never lack for friends to tell him that his presidential destinies are written in the stars. —(Boston Herald).

An Incentive to Thought.

Mr. Bok's offer of a prize of $100,000 for the best plan offered by an American for American co-operation in the maintenance of world peace will be an incentive to deeper thought on the subject. —(New York Tribune).

Success of the Tariff Law.

Official figures from Washington knock into a cocked hat the lamentations of the political agitators in and out of congress who predicted dire results from the operations of the tariff law. —(Philadelphia Inquirer).

LAST WEEK'S WEATHER

Summary of Crop and Climatic Conditions for Week Ending Yesterday.

The week was marked by a decided change to cooler weather, says the latest weather bureau report. Beneficial showers occurred the first of the week, but rain is still needed over the central and eastern counties. Severe thunder showers, accompanied by high winds and heavy precipitation, caused local crop damage over the western portion of the state.

Crops generally made good growth. Corn continued to improve; potato and beans are doing well; oats are heading, but short; wheat is ripening; haying is now in progress over the entire state; pastures and meadows are somewhat dry. Fruit continues to develop rapidly. The strawberry season is about finished; cherries are being picked in increasing quantities; grapes are reported to have set well.

Haying Help Wanted.

The cry of scarcity of haying help is louder than ever this year and all boys who can assist in the work are wanted. Two boys who advertised in the Daily Star last week were called for immediately, several times. Some farmers have offered as high as five dollars a day for competent help. It is in this condition that is causing so many vacant farms. In the southern part of this town there are not less than twenty-five farms unattended, and some of them like the Sanford place and William Bouck's, formerly the Wakefield farm, have in years past been known as among the best in the town and made good money for their owners. —(Franklin Daily Star).

From Parshall Hospital.

Kenneth Arthur Bush, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Bush of 4 Third street, was operated upon Thursday by Drs. Latcher and Smith for removal of tonsils. The young man is making a good recovery.

Fred Russell of Franklin, who was operated upon for ruptured appendix, was able to return to his home Thursday. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Parshall.

Fast Matrons to Frisk.

The Fast Matrons' association of the Otsego-Schoharie district, order of the Eastern Star, will hold its annual picnic on Wednesday, July 11, at Three-Mile-Point on Otsego lake. ## GOODYEAR ASSOCIATION ELECTS

Chester A. Rote Chosen President—Annual Field Day August 6.

Chester A. Rote was elected president of the Goodyear lake association at a meeting held last evening at the camp of E. M. Ronan. About twenty members were present, and it was decided to hold the annual field day on August 6. At the same time F. M. H. Jackson was elected vice-president and J. O. Hoyt secretary and treasurer.

The field day at Goodyear lake has come to be a landmark among summer events at Oneonta. Inaugurated three years ago, it has been made more of a gala day each succeeding year. A baseball game accompanied by field and water events were the attractions of the afternoon at the field day last year. It has been the custom for Oneonta merchants to contribute appropriate prizes for the winners of the separate events, and this has greatly added to the keenness of the competition in each contest of the day.

When the Cliffhangers opposed the Westsiders in a hotly contested ball game, the stars of the game being the respective twirlers, C. C. Miller and Fred N. VanWick. Chester Rote, the new president, had a temperamental spell last year that prevented his being able to add his sensational batting power to the team of the Westsiders, but a sure victory for that side is expected this year when he comes to the assistance of his teammates. Such a crowd is anticipated at the game this year that the construction of an arena is being thought of, the only objection being that a large enough field cannot be found.

Battlesnakes in New Field.

It has long been a tradition that the rattlesnakes of Delaware county are unwilling to wind their way up the Peaverkill above East Branch, for reasons of their own. That tradition seems to be shattered, for they are being seen that side of Cook's Falls very often. Last week several big fellows were found at the watering trough at the Charles Portz place, and when driven from their hiding place about 50 little fellows were found.

The Lackawanna Trail.

One year ago last Thursday the Lackawanna Trail was opened. More than three thousand cars passed over it on that day. There was no celebration planned for its first birthday. At least two hundred thousand visitors visited Scranton and Binghamton to go over this wonderful piece of road this year.

July 7, 1902.

The plans for the new Universalist church call for a structure to cost $7,000.

James Howe, O. N. Stillson and Dr. C. F. Baylis have been elected members of the Oneonta Wheel club. A public institution for the care and treatment of injured and diseased persons is badly needed in Oneonta.

W. I. Ford, Dr. M. L. Ford, E. J. Gurney and L. C. Gurney of Oneonta and P. K. Strong of Laurens leave soon for a two weeks' sojourn in Chicago.

R. M. Collier Sells Valuable Property.

Harry Linger purchased yesterday the residence owned by R. M. Collier of West Oneonta and will have possession next month. This is considered as one of the most valuable homes in the village. The plans of Mr. Collier are not fully known at present, but it is expected he and his family will locate here in the city. The sale was made through the R. M. Collier real estate agency.

AN UNUSUAL EXPERIENCE

Dr. Blain L. Talbot, Former Hartwick Man, Sees His Battle in Film.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorrance C. Talbot of Hartwick, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. Clyde Carr of that place, motored to Toledo, Ohio, recently, for the purpose of visiting their sons, the Drs. Talbot of that city. While in Toledo, the party, accompanied by Dr. Blain L. Talbot, went to a picture house to see the movie, but without any knowledge of what the film was to be. It proved, however, to be "Powder River," an official government picture of the World war, and one of the scenes was laid at Ramboucourt, a French city where Dr. Talbot was stationed, and where a church was being destroyed by fire.

It was at this time and place that Dr. Talbot was wounded, and when he saw the familiar sector of the French front, the beautiful old church and the gas bombs, springing up, he cried out, in his excitement, "Put on your masks!" It was a remarkable thing, that after passing through the horrors of war, and recovering from the wounds received, he should in a mid-western city be sitting beside his parents and without previous knowledge of what the picture was, be looking on the scene.

The trip of Mr. and Mrs. Talbot was most delightful. They found their sons in good health and with a good professional business, built up in the last two years.

NEW STORE FRONT

Modern Show Windows for Drug Store
Owned by H. C. Sherman.

Alterations were recently begun on the show windows of the drug store owned by H. C. Sherman and located at the corner of Main and Chestnut streets in the George B. Baird block. Before removing the present windows, the walk immediately in front of the store on Main street is being repaired with concrete. This improvement will be greatly appreciated by all pedestrians.

The new windows are to be of the bonded in type similar to those recently constructed in the new store of E. L. Ward. Brick will form the lower section of the front and prism glass transoms are to be placed above the windows. The window awnings will be so fitted that, when rolled up, they will be protected from the weather. A grade entrance with tile floor will replace the present step in front of the door.

The work, which is being done by L. H. Blum, will be completed by July 16, and the walk, which is at present blocked, will be reopened next Monday, if good weather prevails.

CHILDREN'S HEALTH CAMP

Many Visitors Delighted With Work Being Done at Laurens.

Delight with the location and gratification that such a needed work is at last being done in Otsego county is expressed by the many interested persons who have already visited the Otsego County Children's Health camp, conducted by the Otsego County Tuberculosis and Public Health association at Laurens. A cordial invitation is extended to all Otsego county residents to visit the health camp. The camp personnel will be complete on Saturday with nine boys.

Regularly is the keynote of the Health camp. Meals are served on time and a balanced diet is arranged consisting largely of milk, vegetables, fruit and cereals. There is a mid-morning lunch at 10 o'clock with milk and Graham crackers, and in the afternoon there is a two hour rest period. Much emphasis is placed on regular sleep as all too many children have no regular bed time. Sewing, teasers and plex, baseball, hikes and sings make a full, happy day for the boys.

The Otsego County Tuberculosis and Public Health association wishes to acknowledge receipt of $25 from Henry C. Wardwell, and $25 from Miss Florence Wardwell of Springfield Center. Children's books, games and clothes are needed in camp and may be sent to Miss Goulet at the Community house, Oneonta.

THEIR ONLY OPPORTUNITY

Children of New York State Will Have Short Vacation If History Club Can Find Summer Homes For Them.

Homes for Fresh Air children for two weeks in Oneonta are surrounding communities will be sought again this summer by the History club of Otsego, co-operating with the New York Tribune, for the 14 days commencing July 21 and ending August 14. Announcement of preliminary plans in behalf of the tenement kids of New York city was made at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary club held yesterday noon.

Last year more than 60 boys and girls arrived in Oneonta on August 14, pale faced, skinny little youngsters each one looking forward eagerly to the big adventure ahead of them—the first contact with an open country where the air is clean and the atmosphere more wholesome than most of them had known. On August 23 the same crew of kids returned, round-faced and freckled, with a new sparkle in their eyes and new color on their cheeks, and many of them wearing better clothes, and all of them cleaner clothes, than they had ever had before.

But the hosts and hostesses of these Fresh Air children likewise profited by the visit of these youngsters, but profited in a different way. For in bringing rays of sunshine and joy into the hearts and lives of children, it is especially true that "It is more blessed to give than to receive." Because of this mutual benefit of an intimate Fresh Air kids, the New York Tribune finds on its lists of hosts from various communities practically the same names as were on the lists of preceding years, and always an increasing number of new hosts.

Consequently, Otsego Rotary club expects to find homes in this vicinity for far more than the 60 children that were entertained last year. It was stated at the club's meeting yesterday. The club's committee, of which P. Ralph Chambers is chairman, believes that most of last year's hosts will be the first to respond this summer and that many other families, in Otsego, in neighboring villages, and in the surrounding rural communities, will open up their homes and their hearts for a fortnight to these little youngsters from tenement districts of New York whose summer playgrounds are hot asphalt streets and whose only contact with Nature has been, perhaps, an occasional visit to Central park.

Those desirous of entertaining Fresh Air children this year are asked to notify P. R. Chambers by telephone, 632, or letter to the Gas & Electric corporation office, specifying where they desire boys or girls, or a boy and a girl. The ages of the children vary from 5 to 12 years.

W. Morton Bertrand was made a member of the Rotary club at Thursday's luncheon. Dr. George J. Dann giving the address of welcome. C. J. VanDeusen presided at the meeting. Visiting Rotarians included Bruce Griffin of Rome Rotary club and Louis Schrieber of Endicott Rotary club.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

Large Attendance Marks Unusually Successful Affair Yesterday.

An unusually large attendance marked the holding of the annual Sunday school picnic of the First Methodist church yesterday afternoon.

From 3 to 6 p. m., the children of the Sunday school stimulated their appetites by games about the park, so that when the meal hour arrived all were ready to enjoy an open air supper. The ample and varied dishes contributed by church members were appreciated to their fullest extent, and no one could have justly come away with a hungry look. Ice cream for all was furnished by the church.

The entire affair was a credit to the chairman, J. P. Harrington, and his committee. Wilber park was found to be a very satisfactory location for such a gathering.

Paste This in Your Hat

Stop whinning and cussing about not having a fair chance, as Otsego people should realize their blessings, by reading a recent statement by President Harding, viz: "Cooperative societies have been successful in all parts of the country. They have already done a great work and taught us many valuable lessons. The principles of Building and Loan associations are made to serve a splendid and useful purpose in our economic life." Now get down to brass tacks; put on your thinking cap and find out how the safe and sane Otsego Building and Loan association has unselfishly helped little fellows and how hundreds more of them are now starting to be helped in its new series now ready for them. It pays no commissions to hunt you up. Better catch on, as it's for getting pep into you. advt 11.

ARAMAN KINGS TODAY

Dewey Steffen's Team to Oppose World's Man at Stadium Park at 8:00—Games at Standard Sunday.

Manager Bridwell will send the Otsego Giants on the field against the Utica Arabian Knights this afternoon with instructions to display their utmost prowess in field and at bat, so that the third game between the two sides may end with the heavier tally on the lower end of the scoreboard. The game will start at 3:30 o'clock at Stadium ball park.

As Otsego fans will recall, Dewey Steffen's outfit trimmed the locals 7 to 3 in the first match played here on June 14, the son of the famed Billy Steffen leading the pitching ball for the visitors. The following day at Utica the teams kept it at 11 rounds. The score stood 4 to 4 when the game was called, although the Giants scored 15 hits off Steffen to 9 bingles allowed by McKean. It being McKean's turn on the mound, the pride of Kingston will doubtless hurl for Otsego.

Tomorrow the Giants motor to Stamford. The schedule for the next two weeks stands as follows:

Monday, July 9, Stamford here.

Tuesday, at Stamford.

Wednesday, at Tannersville.

Thursday, Tannersville here.

Friday, Walton here.

Saturday, at Cortland.

Sunday, at Cortland.

Monday, July 16, Philadelphia Stars here.

Tuesday, at Walton.

TO OPEN ACCOUNTING SCHOOL.

Forrest E. Ferguson & Co. Hold Classes of Instruction in Oneonta.

Forrest E. Ferguson & Co., public accounting and income tax specialists with offices in the Otsego Hotel building, make the gratifying announcement that they will at once open an accounting school in this city. The work of instruction will be under the supervision of Mr. Ferguson, C. R. A., and Paul E. Hutchinson, C. P. A., senior members of the firm, who have had more than ten years experience in teaching and in accounting and crediting, alike in private work and in the income tax offices in Washington. The school will be personally supervised by S. H. Bouton, manager of the Otsego office.

The work, it is understood, will take up advanced bookkeeping and accounting, both theory and practice, with special reference throughout the course to income tax work. The elements of bookkeeping are not taught. Any bookkeeper is eligible to take the course who understands the elements of bookkeeping, and who is now employed or expects to be employed in city or vicinity.

The class will meet Monday and Thursday evenings from 8 to 10 in the company office. Further information for either bookkeepers or employers can be had at the office or by calling on phone, 83.
